

BRONCO PARTY 2.0 GUIDELINES

Being present & Respectful Of teaching time, Never behind, Caring attitude & On target behavior

In order for students to do their best learning, the school environment must be safe, secure and comfortable. This begins with the understanding of school and district expectations regarding safe and positive behavior at school.

BRONCO PARTY

Groveland Elementary will recognize students who demonstrate exceptional character traits and do their best to keep school safe, secure and comfortable. Each week, students will have the opportunity to earn the privilege of attending a BRONCO Party. This party will have various structured activities throughout the school that students will have chosen to participate in on the Monday prior to the party.

Party time: Thursdays or other designated day.

STUDENTS WHO HAVE EARNED THE PRIVILEGE OF ATTENDING BRONCO PARTY MAY MAKE THE CHOICE TO ATTEND STUDY HALL TO READ A BOOK QUIETLY.

How will students be ineligible to participate in the BRONCO Party?

BEHAVIOR: Any student who receives a behavior (yellow ticket) slip or has any form of disciplinary action that is level 2 or higher will not participate in the BRONCO Party. Parent contact will be made for any student who receives a yellow ticket.

Disciplinary action may be changed based on circumstances and / or the recommendation of the principal or school behavior team.

MISSING WORK: Students who have missing work will be allowed to complete assignments up until 9:30 am on Thursday morning. Students who have not fulfilled the teacher's missing assignment protocol by the designated time will not participate in the BRONCO Party for that week.

TARDIES: Any student receiving a tardy:

- 1st tardy - warning
- 2nd tardy - contact parents
- 3rd tardy - Study Hall during BRONCO party
- Each tardy thereafter will result in continued participation in Study Hall during BRONCO Party. Tardies will be reset at the beginning of each Trimester.

The principal or designee has the authority to not issue a tardy for unusual circumstances or inclement weather conditions.
